

FISA BC in partnership with the Justice Institute of BC is pleased to present:

CONFLICT RESOLUTION: Navigating Difficult Conversations

Being adept in both the science and art of holding difficult conversations is an essential skill for school leaders. Participants will practice strategies that foster emotional self-regulation in self and others leading to compassionate and productive dialogue. Designed specifically for independent school leaders, this workshop will model how to purposefully incorporate the Core Competencies to transform challenging conversations.

FRIDAY | May 4, 2018 | Willowstone Academy, 4091 Lakeshore Rd., Kelowna, BC V1W 1V7

THURSDAY | May 10, 2018 | Queen of All Saints Parish, 821 Fairfax St., Coquitlam, BC V3J 5K7

MONDAY | May 14, 2018 | College of New Caledonia, 3330 22nd Ave., Prince George, BC V2N 1P8

Registration time: 8:30 am | Start time: 9:00 am | End time: 4:00 pm

Cost: FREE (subject to cancellation policy, please see note below)

Presenter: RAJ DHASI, Center for Conflict Resolution, JIBC

Note: Limit 2 attendees per school for the May 10th Coquitlam session

FISA BC thanks the Ministry of Education for sponsoring this Leadership Development opportunity.

RAJ DHASI is a conflict management consultant, specializing in Neuroscience, who works with school districts across Canada to shift difficult conversations into opportunities for growth

NOTE: Participants that do not attend will be assessed a $50 fee since the events are planned and costed on the number of participants, and failure to attend denies a seat to those on the waitlist. (Cancellation accepted at no cost with at least 7 days advance notice).

