POPEY Conference

POPEY has released their 2021/2022 Workshop Schedule. They will be offering a variety online training sessions to support early learning initiatives. Additionally, they will hold 7 regionally-based face-to-face workshops. All POPEY learning opportunities are offered free of charge and are open to educators within the public and independent school sector. For more information and to register, visit here

BC Principals and Vice Principals Association (BCPVPA)

BCPVPA has recently created a new membership class which enables independent school leaders to access some of their organizational supports. You can find more information on the BCPVPA website here.

Summer Reading

Last spring, near the start of the pandemic, Michael Shenk, principal of Northside Christian School, accomplished a milestone that many people dream of – he published his first novel! If you are looking for some summer reading, consider picking up a copy of Always a Brother – a mystery steeped in small town BC ambience with a protagonist who proves that it's not how you start, it's who you become that matters.
